You may need to create an account. Note: our ESPO website shares info across multiple sites: Airborne Science Program, ESD Publications, SOFRS.

The screenshot shows the ESPO website interface. At the top, the browser address bar displays `espo.nasa.gov/pace-pax`. Below the browser tabs, a dark navigation bar contains the NASA logo, a red arrow pointing to the ESPO menu item, and other menu items: ESPO Archive, Flight Request, and Mission Tools. Below these are links for My account and Log out, which are circled in red. A search bar is located to the right of these links.

Task	Status
Contact Information All mission participants need to provide contact information, including email address, work phone, and work address. To review or update the information that has already been provided, go to this page .	Complete
Travel Intentions All mission participants need to provide details on which deployment(s) they will be participating in, and the dates of their planned participation. To review or update the information that has already been provided, go to this page .	Complete
Personal Information Participants who are going to the field need to provide additional information for security checks and badging at each deployment location. To review or update the information that has already been provided, go to this page .	Complete

At the bottom, a note states: "To return to this page in the future, you can access it using the 'Mission DB' tab on your user account page, or else using the 'Registration' link in the mission menu."

You will need to enter information for each deployment location.
Edwards will have separate sections for integration, flight operations, and download
If you will not be deployed or participating at a location, select "No Travel"

ER-2 Flight Operations at Edwards AFB (Dates 9/3/2024-9/27/2024)

Revisions

No Travel: I will definitely not be participating in this deployment.

Likely: I will probably be participating, but I have not yet made any travel plans or I am already based at this location.

Planned: I am planning to participate and have preliminary travel dates, provided below, or I am already based at this location.

Confirmed: I have confirmed my travel dates, provided below, or I am already based at this location.

Contingency: I am unlikely to participate, but I may need to go at the last minute if there are unexpected circumstances or I am already based at this location.

Travel Dates for this Deployment (change as needed)
In cases where travel to/from the deployment location takes more than one day, the transit time should not be included, i.e., the dates provided should be the date when you arrive at the deployment location and the date when you depart the deployment location. If you will be making multiple trips to the deployment location, click on "Add another set of travel dates."
